Product picture

Sample taken from

Seller "DeDa Nature" from Shopee and Lazada

The Consumer Product Safety Office has issued a notice to the online seller, DeDa Nature, to cease supply of the Toddler Busy Board (Model: Blue Basic).

During the testing of this sample, it was found that the product did not comply with the following safety requirements under ISO 8124-1:2022: Safety of toys:

- The detachable blue press buckle was found as a small part which could pose a choking hazard.
- The pin on the blue buckle could be dislodged and was found as a small part, which could pose a choking hazard.
- The length of the green and red cords exceeded the specified requirement and could pose a risk of strangulation. There was no warning about the long cord found on the packaging.
- The average thickness of the polybag packaging of the product was below the specified requirement, which could pose a risk of asphyxiation due to the thin, flexible plastic film.

No report of incident or injury related to the use of this product has been received to date.

Consumers who have bought the product are advised to stop using it immediately.
